Hello. I'm Brian Guthrie, and I'm the Executive Director of your Teacher Retirement System.

I'm also a big baseball fan. But I'm not here to talk about baseball. I'm here to talk about TRS' new financial awareness video series.

In this series of short animated videos, we're going to explain what you have - your TRS pension; what you need - to save more; and how to get it - by saving smart.

For those of you just taking the field as TRS members, retirement planning may be the last thing on your mind. But for others, the home stretch may already be in sight.

That's why we've created certain videos for our early and mid-career members, and other videos for our members who are near retirement.

So, why is TRS doing this?

Well, it's simple: we want to see YOU hit a retirement home run.

Don't wait until the last inning. Go to the TRS YouTube channel and start watching now!
